I spent an hour and a half with it and didn't feel like I really got anywhere. There was just too much to do to get my game to the end. Currently, there are some cheap Android tablets out there. I considered buying the OCZ drive on them, and I might still. More storage space always sounds good, no?

I'll probably just keep the extra - most likely the free game and I've always liked free stuff. Good advice. I was starting to feel 'blah, I already bought my ticket' when I saw this. Very timely!
